

Table of Contents

Introduction: The tension between the rational and the non-rational in Plato’s reasoning .....	11
Plato’s endeavor of truth-finding .....	15
Plato’s rational/non-rational continuum of reasoning .....	16
Mythos and logos in Plato: How useful are competing modes of enquiry?.....	19
How useful are Plato’s ideas for problem-solving in our time?.....	24
1. How does Plato communicate his ideas? .....	29
Foundations of communication and culture-construction .....	29
Performative acts and symbol-making .....	30
Identity and complex culture.....	31
Intentionality .....	33
Complex language.....	34
Salient agents in cultural identification as a precondition for self-reflection and reasoning .....	35
Language use and the crafting of philosophical terminology.....	37
Existing terms in new contexts.....	40
Plato’s creation of new terms .....	52
New phraseology introduced by Plato .....	59
The narrative fabric of Platonic discourse: Myth as a tool of philosophical reasoning.....	63
The interaction of orality and literacy .....	70
2. How does Plato rationalize what is beyond the limits of reason? .....	75
Reason vis-à-vis the non-rational: Hybrid topics of Plato’s philosophy .....	76
Plato’s approaches to the world of the supernatural.....	78
Plato’s respect for divinely inspired traditions.....	79
The mythical ages of mankind and their representation in Plato’s dialogues .....	81

Gender issues in an ideal society.....	83
The dream of perfect orderliness.....	84
Partnership of the sexes in light of blindfolded justice .....	88
3. How does Plato rationalize belief systems? .....	93
Plato's attitude toward the veneration of female divinities .....	93
Athena as multi-talented patron of a mosaic culture, a network of pre-Greek traditions and Greek innovations .....	96
Artemis, goddess of nature and of the city.....	101
Demeter and her gift of agriculture .....	103
Gaia, the Earth Goddess and early patron of the sanctuary at Delphi.....	105
Hera, goddess of fertility and early patron of Olympia.....	106
Other goddesses whose cults were spread throughout the Greek world.....	107
Plato's way to rationalize accepted beliefs.....	108
Customary law and divine law .....	109
The political impact of myth: Athena and the foundation myth of the Athenian state .....	115
Myths to live by: The significance of oracles and their pronouncements .....	121
4. How does Plato rationalize psychological properties, value systems and aesthetics? .....	127
The discourse about the soul .....	127
Immortality.....	133
Elysium – Resting-place of the souls of the righteous .....	135
The tripartite nature.....	138
The metaphor of the charioteer .....	146
The essence of beauty: Parameters of a non-rational value system.....	148
The strife for the good and the role of Diotima.....	148
Cultural symbolism in light of aesthetics .....	155
The lure of mystery cults and magic .....	160

5. How does Plato contextualize what he considers to be true? .....	167
The cognitive foundation of contextualization:
The relationship between forms and appearances .....	167
Forms as knowledge and knowledge as wisdom.....	172
Cultural memory as recollected knowledge .....	177
Connecting with the memory of the ancestors and their knowledge .....	184
Plato's forms vis-à-vis reality: the Visible and the Invisible.....	197
Continuity of art style aesthetics in light of Plato's Theory of the Forms.....	202
The new materialism: A modern trend.....	205
6. How does Plato contextualize knowledge as the product of philosophy? .....	209
Knowledge-construction as the basis for contextualized culture-construction.....	210
Propositional knowledge.....	211
Prescriptive knowledge .....	212
Greek theater: Knowledge-sharing as a corporate experience .....	213
Theater as performance.....	215
Theater as architectural form .....	218
Contextualization in process .....	221
Myths serving the education of the young generation .....	221
Philosophy as an educational trail for the rulers in an ideal state.....	225
Religious philosophy as a path toward salvation .....	233
The instructive capacity of Plato's community-sustaining knowledge in light of cultural relativism.....	234
Knowledge useful for communal cohesion.....	236
The essence of oral instruction.....	238
The essence of written instruction.....	239
The essence of visual instruction .....	241
The essence of behavioral (attitudinal) instruction .....	245

7. How can Plato's visions be accommodated to a contextual theory of truth to serve modern philosophy? .....	251
Classical truisms and their reflection in intellectual life of antiquity .....	251
Neo-classical theories of truth .....	257
Mythologia and philosophia : Their contextualization by means of rhetorike .....	265
The contextual theory of truth and the preeminence of Plato's eikos mythos .....	273
8. How can a contextual theory of truth be tested? .....	277
The forms and their contextual changes .....	277
Coping with strange philosophical equations .....	285
Deconstructing pseudo-paradoxes .....	289
Pseudo-paradoxes from antiquity .....	290
Zeno's paradoxes .....	290
Epimenides' paradox .....	292
Theseus paradox .....	294
Socrates' paradox .....	296
Sorites paradox (paradox of the heap) .....	300
Pseudo-paradoxes from the Middle Ages and modern times .....	301
The omnipotence paradox .....	302
Moore's paradox .....	302
Barber paradox .....	305
Epilogue: Modernized Plato and the fabric of a new paradigm for philosophy .....	307
Bibliography .....	313
Index .....	369