

Table of Contents

Foreword	9
--------------------	---

Chapter 1: Some Introductory Remarks

1.1 The Manuscripts and Editions	13
1.2 Controversial Arrangements and Structures	14
1.3 The Absence of the ‘Old Codex’.	16

Chapter 2: The Collation of the Manuscripts with the ‘Aṣl’

2.1 Extensions and Reductions of Legal Issues	21
2.2 Interpolations from Minor Manuscripts	24

Chapter 3: A Work in Progress

3.1 Omissions and Additions	29
3.2 Different Compositions, Structures and Indispensable Variants	31

Chapter 4: Abū Ghānim al-Khurāsānī and His Sources

4.1 The Earliest Biographical Notes on Ibādī Scholars	41
4.2 The Kitāb Ibn ‘Abbād —Some Notes	47
4.3 Erroneous Information and Sketchy Knowledge about Ibādī Scholars among the Sunnīs	56

Chapter 5: The Intellectual Environment of Abū Ghānim

5.1 Contextualization of Abū Ghānim and His Work	61
5.2 ‘The Others’: Unnamed Contemporary Sources	69
5.3 Unnamed Commentators on the Qur’ān	80
5.4 ‘ Abl al-naẓar ’	82
5.5 Conformity and Unanimity between the Ibādīs and ‘Others’	83

Chapter 6: al-Mudawwana between Fiqh and Tafsīr

6.1 The Question of the Qirā’āt	91
6.2 The Interpretation of the Qur’ān Based on the Individual Opinion	91
6.3 Recitation in Innovated Melodies	97
6.4 Abrogation by the Qur’ān versus Transmitted Sunna	99

Chapter 7: The Presentation of Legal Issues

7.1 The Dialogue Form between Teacher and Student	107
---	-----

Chapter 8: Conclusions 113

Notes	117
-----------------	-----

Bibliography	137
------------------------	-----

Index of Qur’ānic Verses	153
------------------------------------	-----

Index of Arabic Technical Terms	155
---	-----