

Contents

Foreword .....	vii
Introduction: Academic Charisma and Epistemic Authority. Discursive Knowledge Practices from Post-Secular Perspective Carl Antonius Lemke Duque .....	1
Henrik Steffens (1773-1845). A Forgotten Humboldtian and Political Professor Bernd Henningsen .....	29
Kant. La obediencia y el reino Emmanuel Cattin .....	62
La antropología panenteísta de Krause y su recepción en España Rafael V. Orden Jiménez .....	79
Max Weber's Proposal against the Neo-Humanist Ideal of Science Joaquín Abellán .....	111
Neo-Kantian Pedagogy and Transformation of Religion in Twentieth-Century Spain Carl Antonius Lemke Duque .....	125
Religious Pluralization and Public Religion: Islamic Instruction in German Public Schools Alexander-Kenneth Nagel .....	163
Service Learning Programs as Social Extension Initiative from a Historical Perspective Jon Igelmo Zaldívar .....	184

The Pulpit and the Pew – Transformative Teaching and Learning and Making Sense of Spiritual and Religious Experience: A Covid-19 View Elizabeth J. Tisdell .....	205
Epilogue: Why an Open or ‘Public’ Sphere is Necessary to Civil Society and its Entanglement with Religion William Franke .....	230
Name Index .....	250
Subject Index .....	255
Authors .....	261