

Content

Acknowledgements..... IX

List of contributors XI

Introduction..... 1

Christopher Balme and Abdul Karim Hakib

Part I

Globalized concept, conceptual framings and the development of networks..... 9

From Theatre for Development to Theatre as Development 11

Tim Prentki

Disrupting the Performance in the Evolutionary Journey(s)
of Theatre for Development in Africa..... 27

Oga Steve Abah

Theatre for Development in Africa:
The quest for empowerment of grassroots communities for critical participation in development processes 57

Penina Oniviel Mlama

Theatre for Development within and outside Academia:
Critical Reflections from Experiences..... 89

Selina Banda and Daniel L. Mpolomoka

Transnational networks of the Theatre of the Oppressed:
Exchanges and institutionalization of a circulating method..... 103

Clara de Andrade

Back to the grassroots: the global-historical frameworks of Theatre for Development as an organizational field.....	111
Christopher Balme

Part II

Country-Specific Case Studies.....	129
------------------------------------	-----

Theatre for Development in Ghana: Influences, Contexts and Changing Narratives.....	131
Abdul Karim Hakib

History and Evolution of Theatre for Development in Cameroon: Implications for Formal and Non-formal Institutions	149
Emelda Ngufor Samba

A Typology of Theatre for Development in Ghana	167
Victor K. Yankah

Theatre For Development Practice in South-South Nigeria (1990 to the Present).....	179
Ofonime Inyang and Idaresit Inyang

Theatre for Development, Community Development and Tertiary Institutions in Nigeria	203
Abel Idebe

Impact assessment of Theatre for Development (TfD) Academic practice in the Niger-Benue Valley of Nigeria, 1993–2013.....	221
Sunday Ogbu Igbaba

A Situational analysis of Theatre for Development in Tanzania.....	245
Daines Nicodem Sanga	